

Course Outcome

Sub.: Economics

F.Y.B.A. Semester – I

C 01 Micro Economics (Paper-I)

C 02 Understanding the fundamentals of Micro Economics.

C 03 It provides an Introduction to the central concepts of micro economics such as definition of economics, demand and supply, elasticity of demand.

C 04 The analysis of market structure including perfect competition, monopoly and monopolistic competition are explain with the use of main concepts of the micro economics with diagrams.

Explain the factors of production such as land, labour, capital and entrepreneur and also the concept of rent, wages, profit discuss in accordance with the factors of production.

Indian Economy (Paper – II)

C 01 Learners will understand introduction of indian economics

C 02 Students may come out with general idea of economic planning in india.

C 03 To understand India's Demography so that students can understand population related problem.

C 04 In depth understanding of national income of India and its overall bearing on development.

F.Y.B.A Semester – II

Micro Economics (Paper-III)

C 01 Understanding the fundamentals of Micro Economics.

C 02 It provides an Introduction to the central concepts of micro economics such as definition of economics, demand and supply, elasticity of demand.

C 03 The analysis of market structure including perfect competition, monopoly and monopolistic competition are explain with the use of main concepts of the micro economics with diagrams.

C 04 Explain the factors of production such as land, labour, capital and entrepreneur and also the concept of rent, wages, profit discuss in accordance with the factors of production.

Indian Economy (Paper – IV)

C 01 Student will come up with proper understanding of agriculture development in India. Role of technology in increasing agriculture production.

C 02 Proper understanding of agriculture credit system in India. They will be able to implement their knowledge while dealing with credit by institutional agencies.

C 03 They will understand the basics of industrial development in India. Role of industrialization in economic development in india ,policy making etc.

- C 04 Knowing the role of small scale industries in india. How to solve problem of small scale industries and chalk out steps.

S.Y.B.A Semester – III Macro Economics (Paper V)

- C 01 Understand the sources of public finance principles of maximum social advantage.

- C 02 make students aware of the possible burden benefits and distribution of various types of taxes among various classes of people.

- C 03 students can understand the principle of maximum social advantages, difference between public finance and private finance and also public goods and private goods.

- C 04 gain knowledge about public expenditure public debt and effect of tax on the people and economy

Indian Economy (Paper – VI)

- C 01 Understanding of human capital and human development can enable students to measure.

- C 02 Proper understanding of utility of natural resources and their bearing on economic Development.

- C 03 Analysis and clear concept of money and money management will help students to understand money market and capital market.

- C 04 Proper understanding of federal finance, its meaning and importance. Close view of finance commission's recommendations, subsidies, central relief nature etc.

S.Y.B.A.

History of economics thoughts (Paper – VII)

- C 01 Students may get knowledge chronologically about economic thoughts.

- C 02 Provide students with political , social and cultural conditions so as enable them to understand economics in larger perspectives.

- C 03 Proper knowledge of theories.

- C 04 Acquaint students with various systems.

S.Y.B.A Semester – IV
Macro Economics (Paper VIII)

- C 01 Understand the sources of public finance principles of maximum social advantage.

- C 02 Make students aware of the possible burden benefits and distribution of various types of taxes among various classes of people.

- C 03 Students can understand the principle of maximum social advantages, difference between public finance and private finance and also public goods and private goods.

- C 04 Gain knowledge about public expenditure public debt and effect of tax on the people and economy

History of economics thoughts (Paper – IX)

- C 01 Getting students acquainted with economic theories in contemporary context.

- C 02 To make them understand Neo classical economist and application of welfare economics, causes of market failures and economic theories of justice.

C 03

Understanding of economic recession and crisis management.

C 04

To understand Indian economic theories so as to know dynamics in Indian situation.

History of economics thoughts (Paper – X)

C 01

Getting students acquainted with economic theories in contemporary context.

C 02

To make them understand Neo classical economist and application of welfare economics, causes of market failures and economic theories of justice.

C 03

Understanding of economic recession and crisis management.

C 04

To understand Indian economic theories so as to know dynamics in Indian situation.

T .Y.B.A. Semester – V

Macro Economics (Paper 11)

C 01

Give basic knowledge about the concept of national income and the definition as well as the methods to measure national income.

C 02

Theory of employment of Prof. Pigou, J.B.Say and Prof. Keynes, Discuss at last year students so that these theories can help them to understand the real world problems and give solutions as well.

C 03

APC, MPC, and MEC help the learners to understand the basic components of any economy. i.e. Savings, investments and efficiency of capital.

C 04

Make students aware of the demand and supply of money trade cycle and theories to determine interest rate.

Economics of Growth and Development (Paper 12)

C 01

Theories of Development and Growth given by Prof. Nurkse, Prof. Joseph Schumpeter, Prof. Rodan, Lewis, Rostow. Balance and unbalance growth help students to find out solutions in underdeveloped countries like India.

C 02

Production Techniques i.e capital intensive and labour intensive gives clear understanding of which techniques to be useful to fulfil the objectives of the economy.

C 03

Give a best possible view of an economy sectoral view of development discussed in this paper.

C 04

Concept of growth, development and progress with their clear differences explain and it help the last year students to clearly differentiate the concept.

International economics (Paper 13)

C0:1 Identify the basic inter-relationship between inter-regional and international trade, understand the theories of international trade, terms of trade, free trade and protection policy and import quota.

C0:2 Understanding of the determination of rate of exchange, its theories, balance of payment and trade balance.

C0:3 Make aware of the students about the establishment of the world trade organization (WTO) and its benefits to the Indian economy.

Regional Economics – Paper 14(B)

C 01 Understanding collective economy in the context of local issues. It will help them resolving the problem.

C 02 Space specific economic development attracts impact or natural resources. Student will learn accordingly.

C 03 Selection of place for economic activities is of at most importance. Students will assimilate the ideas of various theories in this regards.

C 04 Understanding co-efficient approach has been included in all inclusive economics. They will learn application of this approach in regional economics.

Managerial Economics (Paper 15)

C0:1 Understand the basic concept of business economics for the managers.

C0:2 Demand function, factors affecting demand and types of demand help the student to understand the very basic of demand.

C0:3 To understand the effect of price on demand (Law of Demand) and elasticity to assess the demand in the market.

C0:4 The analysis of market structure that provides business managers the real atmosphere where they have to perform.

C0:5 Break even analysis that measures the profit and how breakeven point determines is explain to the suture managers of the business.

C0:6 It gives clear understanding of the factors prices of production i.e. wages and profit.

Economics – Paper 16(B)

C 01 Students will come to know about banks and various types of commercial banks , their functioning etc.

C 02 Understanding contribution of commercial banks in indian economic development. Reasons and objectives behind nationalisation , application of technology and diversification of banks will be a basic concepts of students.

C 03 Students will come to know about Reserve Bank of India's administrative setup , development – oriented works , financial policies , control and resource mobilisation.

C 04 Understanding structure of India's co-operative banks , their functions and contribution in agriculture sectors.

T.Y.B.A Sem VI

Macro Economics (Paper 17)

- C 01 Give basic knowledge about the concept of national income and the definition as well as the methods to measure national income.
- C 02 Theory of employment of Prof. Pigou, J.B.Say and Prof. Keynes, Discuss at last year students so that these theories can help them to understand the real world problems and give solutions as well.
- C 03 APC, MPC, and MEC help the learners to understand the basic components of any economy. i.e. Savings, investments and efficiency of capital.
- C 04 Make students aware of the demand and supply of money trade cycle and theories to determine interest rate.

Economics of Growth and Development (Paper 18)

- C 01 Theories of Development and Growth given by Prof. Nurkse, Prof. Joseph Schumpeter, Prof. Rodan, Lewis, Rostow. Balance and unbalance growth help students to find out solutions in underdeveloped countries like India.
- C 02 Production Techniques i.e capital intensive and labour intensive gives clear understanding of which techniques to be useful to fulfil the objectives of the economy.
- C 03 Give a best possible view of an economy sectoral view of development discussed in this paper.
- C 04

International economics (paper 19)

C0:1 Identify the basic inter-relationship between inter-regional and international trade, understand the theories of international trade, terms of trade, free trade and protection policy and import quota.

C0:2 Understanding of the determination of rate of exchange, its theories, balance of payment and trade balance.

C0:3 Make aware of the students about the establishment of the world trade organization (WTO) and its benefits to the Indian economy

Concept of growth, development and progress with their clear differences explain and it helps the last year students to clearly differentiate the concept.

Managerial Economics (Paper 21)

C0:1 Understand the basic concept of business economics for the managers.

C0:2 Demand function, factors affecting demand and types of demand help the student to understand the very basic of demand.

C0:3 To understand the effect of price on demand (Law of Demand) and elasticity to assess the demand is the market.

C0:4 The analysis of market structure that provides business managers the real atmosphere where they have to perform.

C0:5 Break even analysis that measures the profit and how breakeven point determines is explain to the suture managers of the business.

C0:6 It gives clear understanding of the factors prices of production i.e. wages and profit.

Economics – Paper 22

- C 01 Make them understand the meaning of mutual funds , types and progress , achievement of life insurance , investment companies and venture funds.
- C 02 Acquaint students with money-market , its importance resources , symptoms etc.
- C 03 Share market – Role of share market in economic development will enable students to understand dynamics.
- C 04 Structure of capital-market , latest reforms , SEBI , economic reforms , financial reforms , exchange mechanism , Euro Dollars will be basic concern of students and their understanding may go a long way in helping them in larger context.
- C 03 Understanding inflation including demand pull inflation and cost push inflation. Effects of inflation.
- C 04 Proper understanding of reserve bank of India’s policies and introduction of various international monetary organisations.

F.Y.B.COM Semester I & II

Business Economics

C0:1 Understand the basic concept of business economics for the managers.

C0:2 Demand function, factors affecting demand and types of demand help the student to understand the very basic of demand.

C0:3 To understand the effect of price on demand (Law of Demand) and elasticity to assess the demand is the market.

C0:4 The analysis of market structure that provides business managers the real atmosphere where they have to perform.

C0:5 Break even analysis that measures the profit and how breakeven point determines is explain to the suture managers of the business.

C0:6 It gives clear understanding of the factors prices of production i.e. wages and profit.

Macro economics – Paper 04

- C 01 To make students understand determination of employment and income.
- C 02 Students will ultimately learn capital limitation and concepts of co-efficient and trade cycle.
- C 03 Students will learn importance of international trade on economic development.
- C 04 To enable students to understand financial management , taxation , public finance , GST , effects of public expenditure on production and distribution.

T.Y.B.Com Semester –V Economics - Paper 05

- C 01 To make student understand constitution of “Niti Ayog” and structural changes in indian Economy.
- C 02 Provide students knowledge about human development number and its position at international level.
- C 03 Understanding development in industrial area as well as Indian economic development. Amendments in industrial policies after economics reforms.
- C 04 They will come up with proper understanding of the importance of public sector in the beginning of organisation. They may understand investment , industrial pollution and remedial measures.

T.Y.B.Com Semester – VI Economics – Paper 06

- C 01 Students will understand the contribution of agriculture , agricultural audits , NABARD , kisan credit card along with marketing of agricultural product.
- C 02 To enable students to know about role of service sectors and its contribution. They will be able to properly implement the objectives of service sectors after economic reforms.
- C 03 Understanding new tax reforms in taxation. Proper knowledge of GST will empower students to know various aspects of its implementation.
- C 04 Understandings international trade , latest trade policies along with problems of unemployment , poverty and their alleviation.

M.A. Semester I & II

Economics of human resources

(Health and education)

C0:1 Education and health is the very vital and important facilities for the decent life of a human beings. The purpose of this subject is to make aware the post graduate students about the role of education, health in the investment in human beings.

C0:2 It provides an apportunition to make the students critical and judgmental on the facilities available in the developing nations as for as education and health as concern.

C0:3 Brain drain is the most talked about problem of emerging nations. It provides the meaning, types and causes for the brain drain in developing world.

C0:4 Various health committees formed during planning period in India, the role of who and its function give insight to the students to make them aware about the past and the international level institution like world health organization.